Dear Sir/Madam,

APPLICATION FOR PUPILLAGE POSITION

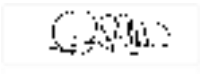

I am writing to formally express my keen interest in securing a pupillage position within Fitch Attorneys in Ghana, commencing upon my expected call to the Bar in October 2026. As a final year student at the Ghana School of Law with a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) from the University of Ghana, I am eager to contribute to your esteemed Law Firm while refining my practice and learning under your world-class mentorship.

My unique professional background offers immediate operational advantages to your active litigation teams. Serving as a Court Clerk within the Judicial Service of Ghana since 2021 has given me exceptional, firsthand exposure to the inner workings of the Ghanaian judicial architecture. This practical courtroom experience has equipped me with an intimate knowledge of civil and criminal procedure rules, courtroom etiquette, and the precise administrative demands required to seamlessly manage large-scale litigation files.

Furthermore, my current role as a Legal Intern at the Economic and Organised Crime Office (EOCO) has heavily refined my capacity for sophisticated statutory analysis and rigorous legal drafting. Operating within the strict framework of the EOCO Act, 2010 (Act 804), I regularly draft formal applications and affidavits destined for the High court. Reviewing complex financial crime dockets to assist seniors in rendering definitive legal opinions has sharpened my analytical judgment and clinical attention to detail; skills essential for the high-caliber work executed by your esteemed firm.

Fitch Attorneys stands as a full service global powerhouse and the benchmark for legal excellence and innovation in Ghana and across international borders. I am deeply motivated by your firm’s storied reputation for navigating complex, cross-border corporate transactions and high-stakes commercial disputes. I am fully prepared to adapt quickly to your institutional workflows, manage the heavy lifting of procedural filings, and provide dedicated research and administrative support across your specialized practice groups.
Thank you for considering my application. I have attached my Curriculum Vitae for your review.

Yours faithfully,

ANITA TAA-WUYEI KABAH
