

OMUWA EMIKE ODIODIO

Lagos, Nigeria

Tel: (+234)8101639780. Email: omo.odior@gmail.com

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/omuwa-odiodio-425746171/>

1st August, 2026.

The Human Resources Manager,
Fitch Attorneys,
16 Dei Street,
East Legon, Accra, Ghana.

Dear Hiring Manager,

APPLICATION FOR THE FITCH ATTORNEYS PUPILLAGE PROGRAMME

I am writing to express my interest in the Fitch Attorneys Pupillage Programme. I am a newly qualified Nigerian lawyer, having recently completed the Nigerian Law School, Abuja Campus, and I hold a Second Class Upper degree in Law from Joseph Ayo Babalola University, Osun State, Nigeria.

I am eager to begin my legal career in an environment that combines technical excellence with commercial insight and international outlook. Fitch Attorneys' reputation as a leading corporate, commercial, and dispute resolution firm makes it an ideal place to develop the practical skills, sound judgment, and client-focused approach required of an exceptional legal practitioner.

During my service with the Delta State Judiciary and the Ministry of Justice, I gained practical exposure to litigation by conducting legal research, preparing affidavits, counter-affidavits, legal opinions, and other court processes, while supporting case preparation. These experiences strengthened my analytical abilities, attention to detail, and appreciation for the discipline required in legal practice.

I also completed competitive virtual internships with Baker McKenzie, Herbert Smith Freehills, and White & Case, where I worked on projects involving contract drafting, regulatory compliance, internal investigations, document review, legal advisory work, and cross-border commercial disputes. These experiences exposed me to international legal practice, strengthened my commercial awareness, and taught me to approach legal problems with precision, collaboration, and a global perspective.

Beyond legal practice, I have led professional teams and managed projects that required strategic thinking, effective communication, and accountability. These experiences strengthened my ability to work collaboratively, take initiative, and deliver results in fast-paced environments-qualities I believe are essential for success in a demanding legal practice.

As a Nigerian lawyer, I am particularly excited by the opportunity to contribute to a leading Ghanaian firm with an international outlook. Increasingly, legal and commercial transactions extend beyond national borders, and I am committed to building a career that contributes to the growth of legal practice across West Africa. I believe my regional perspective, international exposure, adaptability, and strong commitment to continuous learning would enable me to integrate quickly into your team while bringing a fresh and valuable perspective.

I am confident that my legal training, practical experience, strong research and drafting skills, and commitment to excellence would make me a valuable addition to the Fitch Attorneys Pupillage Programme. I look forward to the opportunity to learn from your distinguished practitioners while contributing meaningfully to the firm's continued success.

Thank you for considering my application. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experiences, skills, and aspirations align with the objectives of the Fitch Attorneys Pupillage Programme.

Yours faithfully,

Omuwa Odiodio