Fitch Attorneys
Accra, Ghana

Dear Sir/Madam,

APPLICATION FOR PUPILLAGE

I am writing to formally apply for a pupillage position at Fitch Attorneys. As a final-year student at the Ghana School of Law, currently undertaking my mandatory internship, I have long admired your firm's reputation as a global corporate and commercial law firm delivering sophisticated legal, strategic, and tax advisory solutions to governments, institutions, and enterprises across markets. Your unique position at the intersection of law and strategy through helping clients structure transactions, manage risk, and unlock value in complex regulatory and business environments, is exactly the kind of dynamic practice I aspire to be part of.

My academic and professional experiences have provided me with a solid foundation for the rigours of a pupillage at your firm. My tenure at the Court of Appeal and Circuit Court as an Assistant to the Registrar and Judge honed my ability to manage complex caseloads, maintain meticulous records, and understand the procedural intricacies of the judiciary. This experience is complemented by my legal internships at Sory & Partners @ Law and the General Legal Council, where I developed strong skills in legal research, opinion writing, and case report writing. My ability to work within set timeframes and deliver high-quality work, as demonstrated throughout these roles, is a principle I understand is core to your firm's ethos.

I am particularly drawn to Fitch Attorneys because of your expertise across cross-border transactions, project finance, mergers and acquisitions, investment structuring, and dispute resolution. My experience with AB & David, where I researched areas such as Corporate and Finance Law, Constitutional Law, and emerging fields like Cryptocurrency and Blockchain, demonstrates my proactive interest in commercial and transactional law. Additionally, my recent publication on AI regulation in the Inspire Youth Journal reflects my commitment to engaging with contemporary legal and regulatory issues. I am eager to contribute to your team's success and learn from the distinguished professionals who integrate legal precision with commercial insight to serve as trusted advisers to industry leaders, investors, and policymakers.

Furthermore, my commitment to leadership and service, evidenced by my role as Head of Civic Education with Active Citizen and my previous work with the Unity Hall Judicial Committee and Law Christian Fellowship, reflects the collaborative and service-oriented spirit that your firm values. I am keen to bring this dedication, along with my strong work ethic and passion for the law, to the challenging and rewarding environment at Fitch Attorneys.

Thank you for your time and consideration. My CV is attached for your detailed review. I am eager to discuss how my background and aspirations can contribute to the continued success of your firm.

Yours sincerely,

Nana Kofi Ankobiah Aryee,
