The Managing Partner
Fitch Attorneys
Accra

Dear Sir/Madam,

APPLICATION FOR PUPILLAGE

I write to apply for a pupillage position at Fitch Attorneys.

I am Akua Serwaa Asenso, a final-year student of the Ghana School of Law awaiting my Call to the Bar, having completed my undergraduate studies at the University of Professional Studies.

I am eager to begin the next phase of my legal training under the guidance of a distinguished and reputable firm such as yours. My passion for justice and commitment to helping individuals navigate complex legal issues aligns with Fitch Attorney's ethos of excellence and ethical practice. I am particularly drawn to your firm's diverse range of legal services including Corporate and Commercial Law, Dispute Resolution, Energy and Natural Resources and its reputation as a top-tier firm in Ghana in legal services. This environment offers an ideal platform for me to build hands-on experience in these areas of law.

My commitment to the law extends well beyond the classroom. Through internships, seminars, and professional development programmes, including the Absa-UPSA Law School Banking Roundtables, the Seed Foundation Mentorship Programme, and the International Cyber Conference, I have gained valuable exposure to commercial law, financial regulation, cybersecurity, and emerging legal issues. I also had the opportunity to intern with Lex Mundus and Cencla, where I worked alongside the Chief Legal Advisor at the Ministry of National Security and gained practical insight into cybercrime and digital criminal investigations. Addittionally my studies at the Ghana School of Law gave me an internship opportunity at Kulendi@Law where I sharpened my legal research, writing, and advocacy skills through active involvement in drafting legal submissions, making oral applications, and defending legal positions. These experiences have strengthened my analytical abilities and reinforced my interest in corporate and commercial litigation, particularly disputes arising at the intersection of commercial and property law.

Fitch Attorneys as one of the top-tier law firms in Ghana, known for delivering world-class services to its clientele, is a testament to its excellence. I understand that maintaining such high standards necessitates the recruitment of talented, motivated, and committed individuals. I believe I am that individual and I am convinced about my ability to deliver exceptional work on the tasks I would be assigned should I be granted the privilege of a career at your firm. I aim to learn from your esteemed professionals and contribute to the continued success of your institution

I am confident that I possess the diligence, intellectual curiosity, and commitment required to contribute meaningfully to the firm while continuing to grow into the calibre of lawyer that Fitch Attorneys is renowned for producing. My curriculum vitae and academic transcripts are enclosed for your consideration, and I would be grateful for the opportunity to discuss my application further.

Respectfully,
Akua Serwaa Asenso
