APPLICATION FOR PUPILLAGE

I wish to apply for a pupillage position at Fitch Attorneys. I hold an LL.B. from the University of Cape Coast and have completed my professional legal training at the Ghana School of Law. I am currently pursuing an LL.M. in International Law at the University of Ghana School of Law.

My academic and professional experiences have given me a strong foundation in legal research, writing, drafting and analysis. Through my previous roles and experiences, I have had the opportunity to conduct legal research, work through complex issues and communicate my findings effectively. My current role at the Petroleum Commission has also given me exposure to the legal and regulatory aspects of Ghana's petroleum industry and has increased my interest in energy law. I have developed a further interest in international trade and investment and hope to gain practical experience in these areas as I continue to develop as a lawyer.

I have also learned the importance of working well with others. My leadership and other professional experiences have required me to work with people with different perspectives, manage responsibilities and contribute towards shared objectives. I am comfortable working as part of a team, but I can also work independently when required. I take feedback seriously, pay attention to detail and am always willing to learn.

I am interested in Fitch Attorneys because I believe the firm would provide a good environment in which to build on my existing skills and gain practical experience. I would be grateful for the opportunity to learn from the firm's practitioners, contribute to its work and develop the professional judgment and confidence required to practise effectively.

Please find my CV attached for your consideration. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss my application further.

Yours faithfully.
